HD Bliss

(Canon x HD Massena) (2014) “Bliss” is a bright chestnut that is elegant and feminine with good size and a bigger heart! A slogan often heard with the Morgan Horse is that it is the “horse that chooses you”; we know Bliss will bond with her person someday, but right now, she chooses EVERYONE! UVM Springfield’s mark as a sire of correct, trainable, and beautiful horses is really coming to light with several GN champions in the last few years and now a few breeding sons are ready to do the same. Canon is the only offspring out the remarkable park harness mare, Pastorale, making his pedigree truly one of a kind and this cross with HD Massena looks to be an outstanding addition to the breed.

His pedigree boasts a “who’s who” of Morgan Horses- from the solid government blood at UVM, to the best of Waseeka’s In Command, he’s got a foundation build on good history.

HD Brandy Brook

(Townshend Rob The Wave x HD Massena) (2013) A classic bay filly with an in-your-pocket attitude. Her sire’s by Tug Hill Whamunition and carries the full weight of the Townshend breeding program through his dam. HD Massena has produced many nice offspring already for us, and “Mae” is no exception. Easy to train and solid in stature, Mae is well-started in lines and has willingly accepted a rider.

Sale Price: $3,500

HD Phoenix

(Aljaks Seeing Double x Sugarlane Dominique) (2013) “Emma” is a brightly marked, flashy filly that is going to turn heads! By a son a Aljaks Double Whammy and out of a Courage mare, she’s the complete package of showy and athletic.

Sale Price: $3,500

HD Hartland

(Legacys Viking x HD Massena) (2012) “Hannah” is a sweet chestnut filly and the last of her kind being the final offspring of the legendary Legacys Viking. Her two full siblings HD Troy and HD Aiden Lair are both successful amateur horses and the sweethearts of their barns; we expect no less from Hannah.

HD SANDY CREEK

(UVM Jubilant x Sugarlane Dominique) (2012) A flashy chestnut with a blaze, this filly is keen to learn, but is her own girl! “Sandy” is feminine and refined, but don’t be fooled, this girl loves to work! Well-started in lines and ground driving around the farm like a champ, Sandy’s got a trot we could watch all day. We think she’s going to be a head-turner in the sport horse divisions—dressage, carriage or whatever, she’s sport with style.

Sale Price: $5,000

HD Lily Dale

(Equinox Challenge x UVM Valkyrie) (2012) Not just “look at me”, but “You’d better be looking at me!” is just what this pretty chocolate chestnut filly says every time she shows off. And we do. “Lily” has beautifully classic Morgan head and is well put together.

2016 NYS Stallion Service Auction Four Year Old Sweepstakes eligible.

Sale Price: $4,000

HD Irondale

(UVM Jubilant x Sugarlane Dominique) (2011) Tall bay gelding with the slow legs that are going to make him a western pleasure star! “Ferrous” is easy to get along with and easy on the eyes too. Lunges, longlines and is great for farrier and vet. He did well in his first saddle classes at the county fair with his student rider as a junior hunter and western horse and went on to the NYSMHS in Sept. 2015 to get good scores and better comments in Introductory Western Dressage. He’s fun on the trails too! Ferrous would make an ideal all-around family horse.

Sale Price: $7,500

HD Gouverneur

(GCM Vernon Hall x UVM Valkyrie) (2010) Bright chestnut gelding with a star.

“George” is friendly and willing. Lunges and longlines well and is started under saddle, his easy flowing trot and lovely long neck make him a fun sport horse prospect.

HD Philadelphia

(UVM Equity x UVM Valkyrie) (2004) Beautiful chocolate chestnut pony mare. Cute face with alert expression and tippy ears. Bold in attitude, “Pixie” Excels as a sport horse in a pony size! She’s got blues from the county fair to an A-rated Morgan show, in hunter pleasure, Training Level dressage and Combined Driving. She loves the trails and jumps too. Good things come in this all-around package!

Sugarlane Dominique

(Courage of Equinox x Sugarlane Masquerade) is a 2001 broodmare extraordinaire! She’s produced many foals for us by several different stallions and is currently bred to Townshend Rob The Wave for an early June 2017 foal. Easy breeder, excellent mother and nice to be around, but “Nique” is the low mare on the totem pole in our herd-style of management. While she does just fine and we look out for her carefully, she would likely appreciate being part of a smaller barn with more individualized care than what we do here at Miner. She’s offered for sale reluctantly since we just love her babies and the current in utero foal is much anticipated! Nique was born the year that Courage died and although he’s still available through frozen semen, daughters of this great stallion are getting harder to come by. $3000 this fall and you can get to know her over the winter while you prep for the new foal!

Strategy

(UVM Springfield x Salem Maurada) (2007) The Paradise Morgan breeding program liked this cross enough to do it several times and we know why. Strategy is a handsome 14.3 hand dark bay gelding that’s easy to work around. Likely best suited for a Western pleasure or western dressage career, he’ll go on the trails, travels well and is an all-around good guy!

$5,000
